VBS Update

It is exciting to hear about the churches in our area gearing up for summer 2023 VBS. To all of you who have worked so hard organizing, planning, and preparing, thank you. You may never know the impact your hard work during VBS will have on our children, youth, and adults. Please pray for each other and our missionaries around the world!

Have a great summer,
Cathy Spivey

Mission Updates

About a year ago, I started to sense a direction in life and ministry for me and the Augusta area. I had no idea that we'd be down the road this far in reaching the next gen of our community. Some of you reading this may be wondering, “who is this?” or “what is next gen?” Well, let me reintroduce myself. My name is Pastor/Missionary Steve White. I am the Missionary to Next Gen for the Augusta Association of Baptist Churches. I was commissioned, as a missionary to the Augusta area and beyond, last year. I have a nonprofit (501c3) organization called Mission NextGen (missionnextgen.com) and am serving alongside of the association in reaching the students (next gen) of our area. Currently, I'm mentoring seven youth pastors/leaders, assisting three senior pastors, and helping three churches find part-time student leaders. I'm also bringing training and resources to our area. If you'd like to meet with me or have me present the vision of next gen ministry to your church, please contact me at steve@missionnextgen.com. If you'd like to “adopt” my family and I, as local missionaries, to support financially and pray for, we'd greatly appreciate it. Let's reach this “lost generation” together and help them become the next “revival generation”.

At Broad Street Ministry Center, as we gave away extra food for Memorial Day, we had a group from Warren come and run a pantry day on our first ever Saturday morning. Since this was the first time we ever did a Saturday we were not sure what to expect, we could have 100 people show up or none, so my wife prayed for at least 30 and that's what the Lord brought. So we are planning on doing it again for a Fourth of July.

that's what the Lord brought. So we are planning on doing it again for a Fourth of July giveaway and since the young adult group loved it so much they are ready to do it again!

BCM ended the school year with 11 graduates! We are so grateful for their role in the ministry and the many ways they helped us to engage the campus with the gospel. Spring semester has ended and so has the BCM for the summer. We plan to meet some prospective students at the New Student Orientation. We will also use this summer to think through our strategy for teaching students on campus. BCM this fall is going to be amazing. Please be praying now for:

- The Father to send us new students
- More opportunities to be present on campus. We want to be involved and serve anyway we can.
- Fall semester events
- The Father to raise up new leaders.

Jessie Holmes, Augusta BCM
