

July 2021

Your Monthly News & Updates

Hello North Port Symphony fans! As we anticipate our upcoming season, we are sending you the latest symphony news. We hope you enjoy the headlines below! If you wish to be notified of NPS updates, follow us on Facebook or Instagram by clicking the social media icons at the bottom of the page.

Visit our Website

Musician Mondays

"Musician Mondays" is a weekly feature we post on our social media spotlighting a North Port Symphony musician's musical background. This month we spotlighted our double bassist, Haley Sprague!

One of our teen musicians, Haley has been playing with us since she started high school three years ago.

To read her entire interview, click the button below.

Haley's Feature

To read past features, click below.

Musician Mondays

Board & Staff News

After 10 years of serving us as our personnel director, Laurie Brenenstuhl (right) is stepping down.

Taking her place is Lori Getty (left), current trustee and cellist. Many thanks to both for serving our symphony with such love and dedication!

Musician News

We recently received word that Jim Castro, our 1st violinist, is in the hospital from a serious illness. If you would like to send him a card or flowers, the address of his current stay is

James Castro Rm. B8118
Lakeland Regional Hospital
Lakeland, FL 33805

We are hoping for a complete recovery and are keeping him in our prayers.

Past Newsletters

IN THIS ISSUE

Musician Mondays
Pg. 2

Archived Featurettes
Pg. 5

March Symphony News
Pg. 6

Dear North Port Symphony patrons, As we await our in-person concerts next year, we are instituting a monthly newsletter to update you on symphony news. In addition, we hope to maintain our community-rooted background by sharing moments from our almost four-decade history and musicians' biographies. We wish you a happy March and hope this little bit of familiarity will bring you comfort.

Be in the Know!

To view our newsletters and past symphony news, click the button below! Our second edition contains Musician Mondays, updates on our music education outreach initiatives, and a teaser recording from the North Port Woodwind Quintet. Pictured left is our first edition.

View Past Newsletters

