

Do Right By Me

Learning to Raise Black Children in White Spaces

A book by Valerie I. Harrison and Kathryn Peach D'Angelo

Book Clubs are loving the chance to engage in the dialogue! Here are some of the questions to get you going:

- What was your favorite story? Why?
- Was there any story that resonated with you?
- Do you see yourself in any of the stories?
- Have news media images shaped your perception of African-American men, women or children? Does this book alter that image?
- Have images of African Americans in the news media or in pop culture affected the way you see yourself? Is that positive, negative or neutral?
- Do you think that racism and discrimination still impact you or the lives of those around you?
- Review the list of questions on page 138. Has the book caused you to consider engaging in any of the suggested actions?
- Are there any teaching tools that you can take away from the book about raising children and being a good parent?
- Was there a pressing question that you did not see addressed in the book, and wish you had? Explain.
- If you could give this book to anyone you know as a gift, who would it be and why?
