The Isle of Arran Everyone says it has a bit of everything: mountains, forests, beaches, glens. You can cycle round the island in a day, and there are beautiful golf courses if you like to take things a little more slowly. You can't miss Goat Fell as you approach on the ferry to Arran - it's the island's biggest mountain, and a popular walks, with spectacular views from the top. And if you a serious hiker, go for a scramble with one of the mountaineers from the Arran. Wildlife on Arran is abundant, so pack your binoculars to see seal colonies, otters, eagles, basking sharks, porpoises, and over 100 species of birds. There's plenty of history, too - head to Brodick Castle for a peak at the ancient seat of power, or Lochranza Castle, with its underground prison, 'the pit'. After that you might need a bit of sustenance - and Arran's got that covered, too, with local cheese, beer and whisky

Auchrannie Resort Hotel lies in its own wooded grounds and close to Brodick center. The original old-stone, country-house offers an original character with gardens awash with flowers, ponds and benches. The newer Spa Resort is modern, smart and comfortable, with large, light bedrooms and public spaces. The revamped woodland lodges are the most luxurious. The work of local Arran artists adorns walls throughout the hotel. Bedrooms in the Hotel are traditional colors and some offer bath tubs for two, super-king-sized beds and espresso machines. Spa bedrooms are more stylish. If you love mountains request views of Goat Fell. Nearby Brodick offers shops and restaurants. Well known Arran Beauty Products lies just a mile away at Home Farm and close by is the acclaimed Arran Cheese Shop. Look for a taste the global award-winning Arran Blue.

The Kinloch Hotel is located in the village of Blackwaterfoot on Drumadoon Bay the site Arran's largest Iron Age fort, and the King's Cave said to have given refuge to King Robert the Bruce, where he was inspired by the spider's endeavors to spin a web. The twelve-hole scenic Shiskine Golf Club, one of only two in Europe, sits across the street, You will want to play a second twelve holes or head down the coast to play nine on the Machrie Links. Feel at home in one of Kinloch's 37 airconditioned guestrooms. Complimentary wireless Internet access and satellite TV programming is available for your entertainment. Private bathrooms have complimentary toiletries and hair dryers. Other conveniences include phones, as well as desks and coffee/tea makers. Recreation offers an indoor pool and a sauna. Best of all is Kinloch's location. Take a walk after dinner to watch a memorable sunset.

The Ugadale Hotel, Once the pinnacle of luxury accommodation in the west of Scotland, is now restored to its former glory and serves as the centerpiece of The Village at Machrihanish Dunes. In its hey-day, The Ugadale Hotel regularly welcomed captains of industry and their families, who came to Machrihanish for summer holidays. The hotel has twenty-two stunning guest rooms and suites and pamper guests in casual elegance combined with modern amenities. You will wake in the morning to views of the sparkling Atlantic and the Hebridean islands of Islay and Jura out your window, enjoy a hearty Scottish breakfast, and make your way to the first tee or enjoying a soothing spa treatment. When it's time to kick back, The Kintyre Restaurant and Bar offers a warm and inviting pub environment in a private club setting for a wee nip before bed.
