Wynn Las Vegas. This luxurious resort hotel on the Las Vegas Strip offers modern and exotic experiences with a full-service spa, oasis style pools and a variety of exclusive brand name shops. Less than 5 miles from McCarran International Airport, Wynn Las Vegas features a full casino with more than 1,800 slots and 26 poker tables. A unique shopping experience is available at Wynn's many boutiques, including Chanel and Louis Vuitton, and signature restaurants, buffets and cafes are open for dining. The nightclub, Intrigue, offers high-energy entertainment with state-of-the-art surrounds. Rooms offer spacious windows with views over Las Vegas, dream beds, flat-screen TVs and WiFi. The spa includes women's and men's facilities offering a broad range of treatments, plus a fitness center with a gym and

El Tovar Hotel This celebrated historic hotel located directly on the rim of the Grand Canyon first opened doors in 1905. Many considered it the most elegant hotel west of the Mississippi River. In 1987 the Hotel was designated a National Historic Landmark. The hotel has hosted luminaries as Theodore Roosevelt, Albert Einstein, Western author Zane Grey, President Bill Clinton, Sir Paul McCartney, Oprah Winfrey and others. Today, El Tovar retains its elegant charm and is still considered the crown jewel of Historic National Park Lodges. Today, El Tovar retains its elegant charm and is located directly on the canyon rim. El Tovar offers guests full bell service, and in-room dining for breakfast and dinner. El Tovar has 78 rooms, many of which are suites and no two rooms are alike, giving the hotel distinctive charm.

Enchantment Resort Although it's about 9 miles northwest of central Sedona, the Enchantment Resort is a hit with recent guests thanks to the peace and quiet afforded by the property's secluded location. The Enchantment's accommodations combine traditional Southwestern decor with contemporary amenities like flat-screen TVs and high-speed Internet access. Some even include fireplaces, kitchens and outdoor dining areas. Guests appreciated the resort's attention to detail and outstanding customer service, praising the extra efforts made – like having cold orange juice delivered every morning to ensure a comfortable stay. When you're not hiking through nearby Boynton Canyon or exploring the surrounding property, take advantage of the resort's pools, tennis courts and golf course
