

Gloria Ray for ACCD, D-2

FAITH BASED VOLUNTEER SERVICE:

Gloria Ray has been an active member of St. Paul United Methodist Church, located just east of downtown San Antonio for many years. Rev. James P. Amerson is currently the Senior Pastor. Her oratory talents and management skills are regularly called on to be of service to her Church family.

- Mrs. Ray has also worked at St. Paul United Methodist Church to "teach the children".
- She served as United Methodist Youth Fellowship Coordinator from 1987-1992.
- Sunday school teacher since 1987 and also taught God's word through Adult Bible Studies.
- She has further been an Adult Bible Study Instructor at St. Philips Episcopal Church.
- She has also served as a visiting Sunday School Teacher at Coker United Methodist Church.
- She served St. Paul as its first Director of Administrative Operations.
- She also served St. Paul as the Chair of Evangelism and Chair of Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns wherein she developed and instituted an ongoing dialogue between Jews, Christians and Muslims called the “Children of Abraham” to explore our common monotheistic religious heritage.
