Fall Kick Off is Free for Current Golfview Hills Women's Club (GHWC) Paid Members. $15 for others.

GHWC is a group of ambitious and dedicated women striving for a better community through service projects, social events and philanthropic support. The group of volunteers have brought programs like Concert in the Park, Winterfest, Cookie Exchange, Couples Ax Throwing, just to name a few. The GHWC is proud to be one of the organizations working to maintain Golfview as a very special place to live. We welcome all women from Golfview Hills.

Membership is offered to any current or past woman resident of GH with payment of annual dues of $25. If you have questions whether you are up to date with your dues, contact Karen Morse, Membership Chair, at 312-848-5180. Join before the Kickoff to attend for free. Dues ($25) or Fall Kick Off tickets ($15/pp non GHWC members) can be paid by check made out to "Golfview Hills Women's Club" and dropped off to either Melissa Lively (614 Hillside) or Anne Cahill (628 58th St.) or by clicking on the appropriate Square Link.
