

Established in 2019, LOC Cleaning Services LLC is a small, community oriented, laboring service provider. currently serving Philadelphia.

Charlotte Harris, the founder, also a Philadelphia native, started as a cleaning contractor in April of 2019 and soon after, in July of that same year legally established her own cleaning business, LOC Cleaning Services LLC.

People will call it luck but since the very first cleaning project, LOC Cleaning quickly took off, landing it's first major contract in July 2019, providing 'Post-Construction cleaning services to Property Developers/Re-Developers in the student housing market at Temple University.

Soon after LOC Cleaning began its reputation in the Temple area contracting and providing services to multiple Property Managers and student housing developers.

LOC Cleaning Services has also provided services to "Vacation Property Host" in the hotel and hospital industry cleaning Airbnb's.

As one of Airbnb's well-known platforms, used for its host and cleaners, LOC Cleaning gained a "Super Host Cleaner" status for being rated as one the top cleaners in the industry.

Today, LOC Cleaning has serviced over two dozen Property Managers, deep cleaned 103 residential units, turned over 300+ vacation rentals and provided post-construction and building maintenance services to 7 property developers.

LOC Cleaning is community oriented, with a strong mission and powerful vision. We are not just a cleaning company. We are opportunity for a better economy and a healthier environment.
