

Terry & Hulett Consultants

Dr. Terry CPA, RTSBA and Dr. Hulett Consulting consists of over 50 years of K-12 educational experience to support educators at all levels. A unique partnership, Terry and Hulett Consulting provides business operations and fiscal support along with instructional programming. With broad and extensive leadership experience at both the building and district levels, Terry and Hulett provide a unique insight into a number of complex areas: including but not limited to -- employee compensation, personnel evaluation, instructional design, long-term planning, leadership development, special education compliance and program management, business and operations process improvements. today for a free