

2022 CHW
EMPLOYER
FORUM

Session 4: Sustainability
Speaker Bios

Leonor Márquez, MBA, MSW, LCSW
Chief Executive Officer

Leonor Márquez is the Chief Executive Officer of LBU Community Clinic (formally known as Los Barrios Unidos Community Clinic), a large health center located in Dallas, Texas. Born in El Paso, Leonor grew up in Tempe, Arizona. She has a Bachelor of Social Work degree from Arizona State University, a Master of Social Work degree from Our Lady of the Lake University, and a Master of Business Administration degree from the University of Texas at San Antonio. She holds a current Texas license as a Licensed Clinical Social Worker.

Leonor has spent 30 years in community health. She joined LBU in 2005 and leads a team of 280 employees with a budget of $25 million. The health center serves 30,000 customers through 90,000 doctor/patient visits, most of whom are low income and uninsured. She has also worked as an administrator at Parkland Health & Hospital System where she ran the Health Care for the Homeless Program and the School Based Clinic Program on Dallas ISD and Carrollton-Farmers Branch ISD campuses. She worked for many years in San Antonio as a Director at CentroMed, a large community health center.

Leonor serves on the boards of AT&T Performance Arts Center, Dallas Education Foundation, the Texas Association of Community Health Centers, the Anita N. Martinez Ballet Folklorico, the Planned Parenthood Dallas Community Board, and the UT Southwestern Simmons Community Advisory Board.

In 2019 Leonor was the recipient of the La Cima Nonprofit Leader Award of the Greater Dallas Hispanic Chamber of Commerce. Leonor is a member of the Dallas Assembly Class of 2021, and most recently, she was honored as one of Ford Motor Company's Mujeres Legendarias. She also mentors and tutors high school students and young professionals.

Dr. Kharmynn Bullock

Dr. Kharmynn Bullock takes a vision and makes it reality through sound strategy planning and development. She is an inspirational leader who has various experiences and relationships within the community and stakeholders. Kharmynn is currently the CHW supervisor at Parkland hospital and is CHW and CHWI. Kharmynn has more than 30 years of experience with working with children and their families through family childcare centers, child placement agencies, the Texas Department of Family and Protective Services, nonprofit organizations, churches, schools, etc. Kharmynn holds an associate in Child Development from Amarillo College, bachelor's in Child and Human Development and Family Studies from University of North Texas, master's in Public Policy and Public Administration from Texas Southern University, and a PhD in Public Policy and Public Administration with a minor in Health Policy from Walden University. She also completed educational practicums at The University of Monterrey in Monterrey, Nuevo León, Mexico, and The University of Ghana in Legon, Accra in Africa. She has an extensive history of community volunteering, with the most recent years of being part of the Dallas County Medical Reserve Corp where she performs outreach that emphasizes the importance of being prepared for catastrophic local disasters or other public health emergencies. She also volunteered as a Patient and Family Advisory Council (PFAC) member helping Parkland improve services to patients and their families.