

Carlene King

Carlene became a certified Community Health Worker in 2016 and is a 13 year breast cancer survivor. With over 12 years of experience, she is employed by Cancer Care Services as a CCHW and Community Outreach Coordinator where she focuses on supporting cancer patients, caring for caregivers and empowering survivors by guiding the clients to connect, cope, and thrive during their journey with cancer.