CIL Membership

Membership helps support the valuable programs that CIL brings to the community. Consider becoming a "friend" for $100 or more. Members and friends get substantial discounts on all events for the coming year, our newsletter, and our undying gratitude. Friends also have special offers and opportunities for small dinners and receptions with some of our notable speakers. CIL is the educational mission of BPI, a non-profit agency interfaith center providing pastoral counseling, psychotherapy and continuing education. Your contributions are tax deductible. If you know of others who might be interested in membership please pass a copy of the form to them or send them to the membership page of our website.
