

October 24, 2023 – Day 2,111,464 of the Crisis of Identity

Subject: Is Christianity Failing and Why?

Tuesday Title: Crimes and Misdemeanors

It is interesting that in our current culture, rebels are always the ones who are the good guys. It is especially vivid in the social construct of modern western culture. We cheer for the rebels against the authority, so we can be free. It makes it difficult for our minds to wrap around the idea of repentance unto the authority or authoritarian, this being our Creator. Today the world finds itself within this real life scenario. Another interesting moment here, the people who we have been fighting in that region for decades call themselves freedom fighters.

We are so used to the idea we have created, that the authoritarian is bad, and the rebels are good, because all they want freedom from the authoritarian. The question remains freedom from what?

Jesus came to set us free, from the law of sin and death, but the ideas of liberty or freedom rhetoric of mankind is not the way of truth that brings life.

Rom 8:2 For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death.

Joh 14:6 Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

Read the full text for the understanding within the context of the message.

One of the greatest tactics used by the adversary throughout history is to change history, to delete what happened from the minds of the next generations. Why? Because then, the perpetrator of the crime is no longer accountable for the transgression. Is mankind guilty of a crime? If so, what is the crime? Who was this crime perpetrated against?

Is mankind guilty of a crime? It depends on who you ask? There are many people in the world who believe many different ideas concerning creation, existence, and what happens when we die. Why do we see such diversity in faith (*see definition below) concerning our existence? We return to the scene of the crime to understand what we see in the world today.

Crime, transgression, sin (see link below to etymonline.com/crime) what do these words mean? In Christianity we speak of mankind falling from grace. This is how the adversary works! The grace spoken of here is not mysterious plane of holding of judgement. It is the household of Jehovah, and we have distorted the language for thousands of years to keep us from this understanding of grace.

Next, we did not fall, like we could not help ourselves and we were so sorry. NO! We openly rebelled against our Father's household. This is the CRIME! Now we need to ascertain the motive for this rebellion and how we can escape the sentence of death against those who are in this rebellion.

Sound familiar? The knowledge of good and bad (evil). The rhetoric from all ideological concepts in the world talk about fixing the problems of the world. But how can you fix something when you do not know what is broken, or even worse, your ideology is what is broken.

One of the issues within Evangelical Christianity is they think America is the solution. All you need to do is look at this nation and know that is not the case. Some will argue that it is because we no longer follow the constitution. Because they believe this document was written by God. This is where we continue to fail because the enemy has wiped away the scene of the crime that is still there in the Genesis narrative. And still being perpetrated upon mankind to this day.

The greatest trick the devil has played is convincing us that God and the Devil do not exist. Mankind is simply a construct of his own imagination.

* G4102 Πίστις Pistis pis'-tis

From G3982; persuasion, that is, credence; moral conviction (of religious truth, or the truthfulness of God or a religious teacher), especially reliance upon Christ for salvation; abstractly constancy in such profession; by extension the system of religious (Gospel) truth itself: - assurance, belief, believe, faith, fidelity. Total KJV occurrences: 244

G3982 Πείθω Peithō pi'-tho

A primary verb; to convince (by argument, true or false); by analogy to pacify or conciliate (by other fair means); reflexively or passively to assent (to evidence or authority), to rely (by inward certainty): - agree, assure, believe, have confidence, be (wax) content, make friend, obey, persuade, trust, yield. Total KJV occurrences: 55

etymonline.com/crime

Crime – Merriam-Webster online dictionary

Misdemeanor – Online Etymology Dictionary

Misdemeanor – Merriam-Webster online dictionary