June 12, 2024 – Day 2,111,693 of the Crisis of Identity – Title:

In the words image and likeness holds the key to understanding the scope of our existence, who we are, and why we are here. We currently hold this truth in rebellion, and it creates unrighteousness. In the early writings of those gentile converts who came after the apostles, we read many of whom would not let go of their cultural philosophies of how they viewed God. Within this new philosophical construct of Christianity laid the foundation for the institution and the worship of monotheistic plurality that would be acceptable to all parties involved within the Roman empire.

John 1:1-18

What does it mean to hold his likeness?

- How are we like our Father?
  - We share his physical form
  - The ability to reason for decision making is one, and life is in the blood where the DNA can be understood and maintained in its non-corrupted form.
  - By character and manner
- Mankind was created to have access to the life of Jehovah in understanding existence and the creation to maintain its original order as it continues to grow, so that it does not grow out of control and become disorderly. What happens when the one responsible for keeping order becomes disorderly?
