

March 12, 2024 – Day 2,111,599 of the Crisis of Identity

Title: Christian Nationalism

We are living in the abstract, where words define reality based upon whatever we want to be true. We have begun to hear this refrain concerning Christianity and the conservative political groups referred to as Nationalists. This is to engender in the population that Christianity has become nationalistic or fascist and beginning to link Christianity to the Nationalist parties of Germany and Italy. Changing the dialogue once again to fit the narrative of the knowledge of good and evil. We were called out of this war for knowledge and we must continue to preach the message of repentance for the remission of missing the mark.
