

February 20, 2024 – Day 2,111,578 of the Crisis of Identity

Title: Iranian Christianity and Politics

As we have been discussing Christianity and Politics, a few articles from Christianity Today and the Christian Post have caught my attention concerning Iran and Christianity. Today we want to discuss some current events and look at how Christians and leaders are continuing to enter the political fray and believe they will change the world. What is even more interesting is the lack of any discussion concerning the author and the finisher of our faith, Jesus the Anointed of Jehovah.

Meet the Iranian Christians Crafting an Evangelical Alliance – Christianity Today, Jayson Casper

Lies and Sham Elections Dominate on Iran’s Revolution Anniversary – Majid Mohammadi

Islamic ‘converts’ to Christianity duping church leaders to avoid deportation: judges – Christian Post contributor Anugrah Kumar

Iran Marks the 45th anniversary of the Islamic Revolution as tensions grips the wider Middle East – AP World News, Amir Vahdat

Researchers Find Christians in Iran Approaching 1 Million – Christianity Today, Jayson Casper -10/3/2020