

River Otters of South Florida

ROSF

About ROSF

University Affiliations

of

Victor L. Camp

Victor L. Camp is a Zoologist with a M.S in Zoology from Southern Illinois University-Carbondale and is currently a Courtesy Faculty member and River Otter Researcher in the Department of Ecology & Environmental Studies in The Water School at Florida Gulf Coast University in Fort Myers, Florida. His charge at FGCU is to conduct research on the North American river otter (Lontra canadensis) in south Florida. Victor is also: 1) the creator, author, and editor of the River Otters of South Florida website available at: www.riverotterssouthfl.com and 2) the Founder and Editor of the peer-reviewed scientific journal entitled the North American Otter Chronicles available at: www.otterchronicles.org

21 April 2023