This year we are proud to honor Jim Hanlon, a longtime member of Lincoln Trap & Skeet Club and supporter of gun clubs all through the midwest.

Jim grew up in Maquoketa, Iowa, hunting deer, rabbit and squirrel, and shooting ducks and geese in the Mississippi flyway. Also an avid upland hunter Jim is proud to have owned and hunted over many good German shorthair pointers.

Jim moved to Lincoln in 1968 and joined the club in 1969. He began shooting ATA targets and trap league that same year.

His proudest shooting achievement is winning the Senior Veterans Class, after a shoot-off, in the Preliminary Handicap at the Grand American.
