

First Presbyterian Church is Hiring a Nursery Supervisor!

At First Presbyterian Church, we believe the nursery is more than childcare—it is a ministry of hospitality and love. It is often the first place where young children and their families experience the care of the church community. Our nursery team helps create a safe, welcoming, and nurturing space where children are engaged in age-appropriate play and activities, and parents can participate in worship knowing their little ones are well cared for.

Job Posting: Nursery Supervisor

Position Summary:

First Presbyterian Church is seeking a caring and responsible Nursery Supervisor to oversee our nursery ministry during worship services and other church events. The Nursery Supervisor provides a safe, nurturing, and welcoming environment for young children and their families, while supervising nursery staff and volunteers.

Responsibilities:

- Provide direct supervision of nursery staff and volunteers.
- Ensure a safe, clean, and welcoming nursery environment.
- Interact warmly and professionally with parents and caregivers, maintaining open communication.
- Care for infants and young children with patience and attentiveness.
- Engage children in age-appropriate play, stories, and activities.
- Oversee sign-in/out procedures and follow church safety protocols.
- Report any concerns regarding children's well-being or nursery operations to church leadership.

Qualifications:

- At least 18 years old with a high school diploma or equivalent.
- CPR certification required (paid for by employer).
- Previous childcare experience strongly preferred.
- Strong communication and interpersonal skills.
- Patient, kind, and attentive to children's needs.
- Ability to lead and supervise a team of staff and volunteers.

Physical Requirements:

Able to lift 35lbs.

Able to bend down and get up and down off the floor.

To Apply:

Please submit your resume and references to Rev. Leanne Thompson, leanne.fpcwillmar@gmail.com, 320-262-6169.

First Presbyterian Church is Hiring Nursery Assistants!

At First Presbyterian Church, we believe the nursery is more than childcare—it is a ministry of hospitality and love. It is often the first place where young children and their families experience the care of the church community. Our nursery team helps create a safe, welcoming, and nurturing space where children are engaged in age-appropriate play and activities, and parents can participate in worship knowing their little ones are well cared for.

Job Posting: Nursery Assistant

Position Summary:

First Presbyterian Church is seeking compassionate and reliable Nursery Assistants to support our nursery ministry during worship services and other church events. The Nursery Assistant will work under the direction of the Nursery Supervisor to help create a safe, nurturing, and welcoming space for children and their families.

Responsibilities:

- Care for infants and young children with patience, kindness, and attentiveness.
- Engage children in age-appropriate play, stories, and activities.
- Maintain a safe, clean, and welcoming nursery environment.
- Interact warmly and professionally with parents and caregivers.
- Assist with sign-in/out procedures and follow church safety protocols.
- Support the Nursery Supervisor as needed.

Qualifications:

- At least 16 years old.
- CPR certification required (paid for by employer).
- Previous childcare experience strongly preferred.
- Strong communication and interpersonal skills.
- Patient, kind, and attentive to children's needs.
- Ability to work well as part of a team.

Physical Requirements:

Able to lift 35lbs.

Able to bend down and get up and down off the floor.

To Apply:

Please submit your resume and references to Rev. Leanne Thompson, leanne.fpcwillmar@gmail.com, 320-262-6169.