

"Stop the Insanity!" That Person is Not the Problem

*Leanna Bolden

What on earth is happening to our country?

Our current president's administration recently sent guidance to every public school in America, requiring they comply with his bathroom agenda-- permitting boys in girls' bathrooms, locker rooms, and showers-- or else risk losing millions, even billions, of education funding.

The following bullets are excerpts from the written guidance:

- Treat students consistent with their gender identity, even if their school records or identification documents indicate a different sex
- Allow students to participate in sex-segregated activities and access sex-segregated facilities consistent with their gender identity

Since the federal government essentially owns our children once they're dropped off at school, all of this has bypassed any parental input or state intervention.

Whether it's Target's similar, publicized policy to permit men in their female bathrooms;
the daily "news volley" between Trump and Hillary;
the invention of 'influenza' to excuse drunk driving deaths;
or the threat of a disappearing middle class...

I have a feeling I'm not the only one wanting to scream from the mountaintop, "Stop the insanity!"

What can we do?

I've often said in despair-- and now admit it's erroneous-- that 'the least we can do is pray.' This is not true. The most we can do is pray. Are we to do other things in addition to praying? Certainly. But the most we can do is pray.

"For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this age, against spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places." (Ephesians 6:12)

Friends, I wholeheartedly agree with boycotting (it's God's money, and I'm accountable to Him for what I support with it, and to whom I give it).

In addition, I plead with every Jesus-lover to VOTE (even if it's for 'the best of the worst' candidate).

But the bottom line is this:

Obama is not the problem.

The Fort Worth Superintendent is not the problem.

Trump and Hillary are not the problem.

Target is not the problem.

The lost soul who has been tricked into confusion about his or her gender is not the problem.

"And a servant of the Lord must not quarrel but be gentle to all, able to teach, patient, in humility correcting those who are in opposition, if God perhaps will grant them repentance, so that they may know the truth, and that they may come to their senses and escape the snare of the devil, having been taken captive by him to do his will." 2 Timothy 2:24-26

No, "that person" is not the problem.

They have been taken captive, and they need our prayers.

The problem is spiritual,
and the way to fight a spiritual problem is through spiritual warfare.
The MOST we can do is pray.

"For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war according to the flesh. For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal but mighty in God for pulling down strongholds, casting down arguments and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God..."
2 Corinthians 10:3-5

There aren't any mountains in Texas.
I can't climb one and shout to the world. Even if I could, there may not be anyone around to hear me.
And even if there were people around to hear me, they may not care to listen.
And if they actually listened, they may not agree.

But there is One who is with me on that *spiritual mountaintop when I join Him to pray.
And there is One who will not only hear me, but listen to me as well.
I know that as I pour out my heart to Him, pray His Word, and pray His will, I will be in agreement with my Father...
and He will move the devil's mountains of strongholds, arguments against the knowledge of God, and wickedness in the heavenly places.

So Jesus said to them,
"...I say to you, if you have faith as a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you."
(Matthew 17:20)

Rise up, oh Bride of Christ! Let us pray!
