

Is There Any Room For Jesus In This Mess?

Leanna Bolden

The other night, I had a fleeting thought about something in my past.

My knee-jerk reaction was to brush it off, saying,
*"Oh, there's no way that could ever be reversed.
There's no way it could ever be rectified."*

God's Spirit immediately questioned my heart:

*"Do you mean to say there's no room for Me in this mess?
Is there no room for Jesus in your future,
to fix what's been done in the past?"*

If there's anyone on earth who intimately knows the redemptive power of Christ-- the power of God who can bring beauty from ashes and return double what the enemy has stolen-- it is I. (Isaiah 61, Zechariah 9, Job 42, Joel 2) Yet there I was, in unbelief, with the shallow assumption that my situation was too messy for God.

And then I thought of the birth of Christ.

"And she (Mary) brought forth her firstborn Son (Jesus), and wrapped Him in swaddling cloths, and laid Him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn." (Luke 2:7)

There may not have been any room for Jesus in the well-prepared and pretty inn, but new birth, salvation, comfort and peace came right into a dusty, stinky, humble stable. Nothing is too messy, too smelly, too lowly for our sweet Emmanuel, the One who is God With Us!

As I fell to my knees
in worship of King Jesus that evening, He prompted me to surrender that seemingly impossible, unchangeable thing of my past.
Then He called to mind His Word in Hebrews 13:8--

"Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever."

Over 2000 years ago, God came to make Himself freely available to all who would willingly admit our need for a Savior, and joyfully welcome Him into our messy lives.
He's still the same today.

It's time to make room for Jesus-- in our past, present, and future-- especially in the hard to reach, confusing, messy areas.

He's come to bring truth and new birth when we say,
"This will never be fixed," or "That person will never change."
He's come to minister salvation to our bodies when we're convinced we'll never heal.
He's come to comfort our hearts and bring peace to our souls when we're in anguish and things don't make sense.

CHALLENGE:

Let's welcome Jesus in and make room for Him in all areas...

Past,
present,
and future.

May you have a warm, blessed celebration of His birthday-- not only this weekend but also every hour of every day after.
