PARENTS CORNER

STRONG COMMUNICATION

Members of strong families talk to one another about important decisions and daily plans. Discussions of feelings, as well as day-to-day activities at school or work, are important. Where there are conflicts, take time to cool down before responding, don't bottle up anger or let it get out of hand. Talk about possible solutions to problems and work together to carry out the best solution for everyone.

MAY THE FOURTH BE WITH YOU

May Fourth is Star Wars day! Get the family together and watch all the Star Wars movies or make fun crafts! Grab some paper plates, brown paper bag, construction paper, and coloring utensils. You can use the paper plates to make Porgs, a paper plate Darth Vader, and even Yoda! Using a brown paper bag you can make Chewbacca and add google eyes, teeth, and his signature sash to complete the look! Even make your own Yoda ears with a headband and ears made of felt or construction paper. Done making the characters? Then make your very own lightsaber! All you need is silver duct tape, black electrical tape, and a pool noodle.
