FREE ONLINE TRANSFER RESOURCE

Have you heard about NJ Transfer's website? Read more about it below!

NJTransfer.org is a free, online transfer resource!

Are you interested in transferring to a 4 year college/university in the state of New Jersey? Have you ever wondered how your credits will transfer? If you have some of these questions, have no fear! New Jersey offers you an excellent online resource!

Just go to www.njtransfer.org to find out more! This is a free, online resource for NJ Community College students. From this website, you can check specific courses and how they transfer to a number of NJ state colleges/universities. Also, you can even enter your entire transcript (all the classes you have taken or plan to take) and see how they will transfer!

This resource is available to you 24/7! If you need assistance with this resource, you can meet with a Student Success Coach/Academic Advisor at Brookdale or you can also meet with a representative in the Transfer Resources department. We are happy to walk you through the use of this awesome tool! NJTransfer.org even has videos posted to their website that will walk you through how to use this resource as well! Check it out!
