Contemporary take on the Life and Spirituality of St. Ignatius of Loyola

Let's reflect together with this song : Aún más allá by Cristobal Fones, S. J.

The Wound

The Conversion

The Self-Offering

The Mission

We seek to “find God in all things.” We dedicate ourselves to the “greater glory of God” and the good of all humanity. And we do so gratefully in collaboration with others who share our values, including laypersons. They have become part of the “we,” the extended Jesuit family. Jesuits.org

St. Ignatius’ Vision at the Cardoner River

By Fr. Rick Abert, S.J.

This vision occurred in 1522, not long after Ignatius’ conversion, as he was praying on the bank of the Cardoner River near the village of Manresa, Spain. While praying he remembers that the “eyes of his understanding were opened” and he began to see many things deeply.

This vision led him to know all things in the world as gifts from God. He realized in a new way that holiness did not happen through his own strength, and he surrendered to God’s grace. The Ignatian tradition regards the Cardoner vision as a turning point in Ignatius’ life and ministry.

He began to think of himself not as a solitary pilgrim, but as a person of the church to be of service to people. He also began to see Christ in a new way as laboring in the world to bring it back to God, and he began to see himself laboring alongside the risen Christ to make this happen. Perhaps we can let that vision rest in our hearts and call us to experience God calling us to service.

Eucharistic Adoration at St. Patrick's Aug 6th at 5:00 pm

The tradition of First Fridays is connected to the devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus and to the intentions of the Pope.

Message from our Parish Life Coordinator Silvia Jiménez

I thank God for filling us with hope and seeing how little by little, we resume our activities. Back to school is just around the corner, one more cycle is about to begin. If we conscientiously comply as good Christians and responsible citizens, always seeking the common good, peace will soon return to our communities. Are you interested in your children receiving the sacraments of Christian initiation? We will begin registration for First Communion and Confirmation preparation programs on Monday, August 16 during office hours. Request more information on the requirements for each program by calling 414-645-7624 or visiting the website.

Are You Vaccinated?

This pandemic has made us reassess our priorities, values, and fully recognize that God does not abandon us. God's grace and mercy is abundant! We must do the same with others. Let's do our part, get vaccinated against COVID 19, thus protecting the health of the entire community, do it out of love!

To find a vaccination site, visit the website of your local health department.
