Maegan Edwards is a new member of COT in Mobile, AL as the Mobile Coordinator of Community Engagement. She previously served in AmeriCorps Vista through The University of Alabama at Birmingham in Birmingham, AL, as the Restorative Leadership Coordinator in the Life Crafter Foundation. Maegan's purpose through COT is to help build and strengthen communities. She aspires to help people see that there are opportunities for every individual to reach their goal and live to their full potential.

Maegan is from Mobile, AL and graduated from The University of Alabama at Birmingham with a degree in Bachelor of Science. She majored in criminal justice with a minor in legal affairs. While attending undergrad, she was in a few student organizations and on the Women's Track and Field team. She aspires to be a criminal defense attorney and have her own law firm in the future. Maegan is excited to be a part of the COT team and to help make a change.
