

OMKARA SERVICES LLC

INSTRUMENTATION TECHNICIAN

NOW HIRING IN HOUSTON TEXAS

CONTACT

Send your resume to

omkara@omkaraservices.org

<https://www.omkaraservices.org/>

EDUCATION

High school diploma or equivalent or Successful completion of a two (2) year Associates technical degree in Instrumentation, electronics, computer repair, process control, or other related technical field, OR successful completion of the ISA Instrument Technician Training Program (ITTP) with ISA or equivalent certification .

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

- Repair, Test, Calibrate instrument/analyzers to desired range using proper test equipment and calibration standards
- Troubleshoot motor, motor starter circuits, Variable Frequency Drives (VFDs) and repair as needed up to 5KV
- Provide field instrumentation support for all process equipment. The systems maintained utilize pneumatic, hydraulic, electro-mechanical and electronic elements.
- Develop work plans covering installation, calibration, inspection, and troubleshooting tasks, to minimize production impacts and enhance the reliability of the operation.
- Participation in incident investigation and corrective action development as a part of a continuous program improvement.
- Troubleshoot a complete loop from measuring element to final control, both electronic and pneumatic, element.
- Responsible for maintaining housekeeping in area of responsibility.

REQUIREMENTS

- Drug Screen | Physical | Background Check
- Lift a minimum of 50 lbs
- A minimum of five (5) years full-time practical experience in process instrumentation in petrochemical, refinery, pulp/paper or a related industry