

National Pageant Handbook

Welcome

Dreams Do Come True and This Is Where They Start!

As National Director for Miss American Coed it is my pleasure to welcome you to our pageant family! As a former contestant myself I can tell you this experience is not just about the crown it builds character, creates friendships to last a lifetime, and instills a foundation of public speaking and interview skills to help you accomplish your goals for the future. By taking this first step you are starting a journey of personal growth and becoming the best version of yourself. I am so happy that you will be joining us and if I can help in any way please feel free to reach out to our office anytime!

*Best Wishes,
Michelle Landry*

National Titles

Miss

American Coed

Our National Queens competition is our most exciting event of the year! This competition is open to State or Regional winners, and any contestants appointed by our national office. Our National Queens will take home a very generous prize package and will sign a contract to represent American Coed during their reign. The age divisions available for the National Queens Competition are: Princess (3-6), Sweetheart (7-9), Preteen (10-12), Junior Teen (13-15), Teen (16-18), Coed (19-24), Ms (25 -34), Woman (35-44), and Classic Woman (45 and up)

Miss

American Victory

Our National Victory competition is a secondary national title open to queens contestants and contestants appointed by our National Office. This program gives our contestants an additional opportunity to win as well as gives them the chance to showcase a broad range of skills by including their best live optional performance in their overall score. The age divisions available for our National Victory titles title are: Princess (3-6), Sweetheart (7-9), Preteen (10-12), Junior Teen (13-15), Teen (16-18), Coed (19-24), and Ms (25 and up)

Pageant Scoring

Preliminary Score

Every contestant will be scored during the Eveningwear, Interview, and Interview Appearance and Introduction phases of competition. Each of these areas are equally weighted and will be added to determine the Preliminary Score. These scores will determine the Top Finalists for each age division. The Top Finalists will be announced during the Final Pageant.

Final Pageant Score

After the announcement, the Top Finalists will compete in Eveningwear and an on stage introduction. Based on their performance in these events the judges will give each Top Finalist a Final Pageant Score. The Preliminary and Final Pageant Scores will be added to determine our Queens Court and National Queen for each age division.

Victory Scoring

Contestants competing for our National Victory title will be scored in the three required phases of competition along with their on stage optionals of choice. Their scores from Eveningwear, Interview Appearance and Introduction, and Interview will be combined with the score of their highest scoring live optional. The total of these scores will be used to determine our National Victory winner and court.

Judging Information

- Judges will score independently and will not discuss or come to a consensus
- Judges will sign a questionnaire disclosing any acquaintance with a contestant that would impair their judgement. If this situation should arise, the Judge will only provide feedback for that contestant in the form of comments and an average of the other Judges scores will be used.
- Judges will not have the opportunity to read or view a program book until after the final pageant and program book photos are not judged.
- Judge's will not be scoring Contestant Bio Sheets, nor will any awards be given for Bios
- Judges will not be allowed to discuss results with contestants or parents.
- Overall scores will be provided to the contestants free of charge after January 1st.
- Comments and scores from optional competitions will be provided upon request.
- Judges are not informed of overall standings or placement in advance.
- All staff and Judges will be staying in the host hotel and attending pageant banquets but will not be taking notes or scoring during these events.
- Walking patterns and layouts will be sent out in your upcoming newsletters.
- Contestants are allowed to participate in both Queens and Victory competitions or choose to participate in either National Queens or Victory only.
- In the event that a contestant wins both the Victory and Queens title, they will be awarded the Queens title and the Victory title will be awarded to the contestant with the next highest score.
- Judges will not be informed whether contestants are competing for the Queens or Victory competition prior to the final pageant.

Required Events

Interview

Our judges will not be looking to stump or trick you and we do not base our questions on controversial issues. They want to get to know you and find out why you want to be the next national queen. They will be looking for a natural conversationalist who is confident, comfortable, and poised. Often times the hardest questions are those that are the simplest in nature such as, "Why do you want to win?" Or "What do you do for fun?" Remember during your preparation to practice a variety of questions both challenging and simple so that you are not caught off guard and can show the panel all sides of your personality.

Interview Appearance & Introduction

For Interview Appearance our goal is to teach our contestants the importance of making a strong first impression. Judges will be looking to ensure that not only was the dress code met but also that the outfit choice and styling choices compliment the contestant. In Introduction our goal is for our contestants to learn public speaking skills that can be utilized in your future studies and career. With that in mind our judges will be looking for a confident and natural delivery. Contestants can be creative but please note that the panel is not scoring based on content or uniqueness but rather on your approach, poise, and speaking ability. In addition, it is important to remember that this category is comprised of two elements. You will only receive one score but it will encompass the Judges' ratings on both the styling and the delivery of the introduction.

Eveningwear

In Eveningwear our judges will be looking for a natural walk that shows confidence and comfort on stage. Ideally your walk would have limited poses, an excited and happy expression, relaxed arms and shoulders, and picking up or holding your gown is discouraged. Judges will be looking for your stage presence, the ease in your movements, and poise in your moment in the spotlight.

Interview Room

To start our “Round Robin” Interview and the Interview Appearance & Introduction phase, contestants will meet in the interview waiting room where they will be separated into their groups. Once the judges are ready to begin, contestants will be brought into the room by a staff member. Each contestant will be asked to step forward to the marked “X” to perform their introduction followed by a turn to model their interview outfit. Contestants in the Princess age group may perform a pivot or circle turn. Contestants in all other divisions should perform a pivot turn. After all contestants in the group have performed their introduction, the moderator will bring the group to the room and direct each contestant to their first judge to start the interview. The moderator will remain in the room to keep time and will notify contestants when they will rotate to their next judge. Once all of the contestants in the group have met with each judge, they will be sent off to take photos and get ready for their next event. Final diagrams of the Interview Room and Stage will be sent in your newsletters and any updates will be emailed prior to Nationals. Please remember to arrive 15 minutes early to the interview holding room to be lined up.

Example Introductions

Princess & Sweetheart

A future model and prima ballerina, I live for the stage! Someday I hope to grace the stage, but for now I enjoy playing with my friends and spending time with my favorite pets. Coming to you from Massachusetts I am.....

Junior Teen & Preteen

Eleanor Roosevelt once said, the future belongs to those who believe in the beauty of their dreams. As an aspiring teacher my dream is to educate the youth of our country. A volunteer tutor and honor roll student I am well on my way to accomplishing my goals. Until then, I can be found kayaking, cheerleading and volunteering for the American Heart Association. Representing Massachusetts, I am

Teen & up

Working in direct care I truly believe that we give our hands to serve and our hearts to love. Whether its working one on one with my clients or studying for my degree I know that my work will make a difference. In my spare time this avid runner can be found training for my next race, enjoying the outdoors with my two dogs, or finding the latest bingeworthy shows. Hoping to leave a lasting impression from Massachusetts, I am.....

Please Note

Introductions have a maximum time limit of 30 seconds and should not include your age. A staff member will be present to keep time for each contestant.
