

HALL OF FAME INDUCTEE

Mike Cosgrove Class of 1966

Mike Cosgrove was born and raised in Woodside, Queens, at St. Mary's Winfield parish, which led him to Power where Mike was involved in Basketball, Football and Softball intramurals, as well as the Brother Rice Club, the Glee Club, the Sodality of Our Lady, French and the Society of the Samaritans. Mike graduated from PMA in 1966.

Mike is a diehard Yankees fan and faithful college basketball fan (with a long history of playing, coaching, and refereeing HS and College hoops for over 25 years). He and his wife Pat (who also had a distinguished 25 years at the NYC Board of Education), have a Daughter, Kathy and two Grandchildren, James and Molly. When not on the golf course, Mike can be found on the beach with family and dogs.

Mike had over 44 years of experience within General Electric (GE) including positions at U.S. Pension Trustee, Oversight of Global Pension Plans, and Leader of Mutual Funds and Asset Management (with assets over $140 billion). While at GE, he also had responsibility for Risk Management, Asset Allocation, Manager Selection, Finance, Sales, and General Management. In addition, Mike had finance and sales roles in GE's International Industrial businesses including Power Generation, Aircraft Engines, Aerospace, Medical, and Transportation. He created GE Trading Company and became the first CFO and eventually the leader of the business with oversight for GE's Countertrade and Barter Operations worldwide.

Mike graduated from Fordham University with a Bachelor in Science (BS) degree in Economics and received his MBA degree from St. John's University.

Mike holds a board position at Neuberger Berman Open and Closed-End Funds & ETFs, where he is the Chair of the Audit Committee. Mike currently serves on the Parish Council as Treasurer of St. Pius X in Scarsdale, New York. Mike is Trustee Emeritus of Fordham University, having served as the Chair of the Audit and Risk Committee, the Chair of the Facilities Committee, and a member of the Executive Committee.

In the past, he was a Trustee at Marymount College and Thunderbird Advisory Council as well as the Treasurer of GE Foundation and Treasurer and Director of the Skin Cancer Foundation. Mike also served on the Board of Governors for the Investment Company Institute and was on the board of America Media as the Chairman of the Investment Committee. Mike also served as President of the Parent's Council at Good Counsel and Regis High School.
