Saturday Night Revivals

Once again, God moved greatly in our Saturday night revival. God spoke to many hearts and testimonies came about experiencing the power of God. Beginning in the month of May, we are going to extend the once a month Saturday revival to twice a month. We will hold a one-night revival the first and third Saturday nights of the month. The location is still at the Holiday Inn express in North East, MD. All are welcome to come and worship with us!

It's a time for harvest! In the Bible there are two times that I want to write about, seed time and harvest time. Seed time is a time of sowing. It is a time of putting seed in the ground believing God for one day to see the fruit of the labor of planting the seed. I believe that now is the time for harvest. Some of you have sown seeds in prayer, you have sown seeds in your faith, you have sown seeds in your testimonies. I believe we are entering into a time when you are about to see the harvest for the seeds you have been sowing. I'm believing that you are about to see sons and daughters coming home, ministries being birthed, seeing the miraculous power of God working in your lives. If your expectancy has dwindled, it's time to believe again and stand on the promises of God. Stand on what God has said and what you are believing God to do. Keep moving, keep the faith, keep moving forward in the power of God and his might.
