

RACIAL HEALING CIRCLES

K U S A N Y A

“THE GATHERING”

Sat. Mar. 22, 2025 from 10 am to 1 pm at St. Augustine of Hippo

1208 Green St, Norristown, PA 19401

Free and open to anyone who self-identifies as African American

The Anti-Racism Commission of the Episcopal Diocese of Pennsylvania is offering racial healing circles facilitated by Lailah Dunbar-Keelys.

- What does it mean to be Black today?
- How do you navigate systemic racism in our current cultural climate?
- How does your faith support you in overcoming these challenges?

Grounded in historical, cultural, sociological, and spiritual understanding, racial healing circles will provide a safe space for small groups of like-minded people to share their stories about the challenging realities of systemic racism.

In our current cultural climate with sweeping legislation that undermines centuries of Civil Rights policies, and social justice practices, many people find themselves grasping for meaning. With the support of the circle facilitator, participants will be provided the tools to listen, reflect, and gain understanding.

For questions about ARC's racial healing circles, please email ARC co-chair The Rev. Barbara Ballenger at barballenger@gmail.com.
