

In Loving Memory of
Virginia Fulmer Floyd
September 25, 1924 - January 21, 2024

Virginia Fulmer Floyd, known affectionately as Grandmother by her family, peacefully passed away on Sunday, January 21, 2024, surrounded by loved ones. Virginia's warm and welcoming nature endeared her to everyone she met. Born on September 25, 1924 in Columbia, South Carolina, she was the eldest daughter of the late George Fulmer and Pearl Price Fulmer.

Graduating from Columbia High School, she went on to work at Fort Jackson. During her time there, she was named Miss Fort Jackson. She then went to work in the sales office of Standard Oil, now Exxon, where she met her husband of over 40 years, the late Julian W. Floyd. In 1959, they relocated to Charlotte, North Carolina for Julian to work at the corporate offices of Exxon. Virginia dedicated herself to creating a loving home raising two daughters, Lynn and Judy.

As the children grew, Virginia returned to part time work at the Exxon office & made many new friends. Up until the time of her death, she was an active member of the Exxon Annuitant Club and cherished their regular lunches & meetings.

Soon after moving to Charlotte, she and Julian joined St. Luke's Lutheran Church. Deeply devoted to her faith, she actively participated in the Jim Bolton Bible Class, Connie Counts Circle, and served as a representative to the Shepherd Center for the church. Virginia faithfully attended the 8:30 A.M. Sunday service well into her 90's.

Virginia was preceded in death by her parents, her sisters, Erma Sims and Elva Lee, husband, Julian Floyd and son-in-law, Chip Hough.

She is survived by her daughters, Lynn Floyd Polk (Ron) and Judy Floyd Woodward (Don), along with cherished grandchildren, Ginny Hough (Kevin), Julie Cutshall (Jason), Philip Woodward (Erin), Katie Drozd (Lewis), and Mark Woodward. Her legacy also lives on in her four great-grandchildren: Logan McClain, Charlie Woodward, Addie Woodward and Carter Cutshall, all of whom she loved & adored.

She also leaves behind her beloved sister, Dorothy Kerscher and many nieces and nephews she cherished. The family would like to thank Eileen Hoyle and Pat Lahey, her neighbors, for their love and care for Virginia.

May the memory of Virginia be a source of comfort and inspiration to all who knew and loved her.
