Daily Devotionals and Scripture Meditations

If you are not in the habit of using a daily devotional, now would be a great time to try one out. Episcopal oriented or sponsored, free, daily devotionals are listed below.

Forward Day by Day <https://prayer.forwardmovement.org/>

Classic, tried and true reflections on the lectionary, free on their web site.

Speaking to the Soul <https://www.episcopalcafe.com/category/speakingtothesoul/>

A variety of contributors explore the meaning of the readings.

Brother, Give Us a Word <https://www.ssje.org/word/>

Brothers from the Society of St. John the Evangelist offer a daily word for all who seek a deeper knowledge of God. This offering is appropriate for older elementary and youth.

D365 – for youth <https://d365.org/>

Concise and written especially for youth to pause, listen, think, pray and go.

Following are two sources of devotions and meditations sent in by parishioners.

Richard Rohr's Daily Meditation <https://cac.org/category/daily-meditations/>

From the Center for Action and Contemplation. In his Daily Meditations this year, Franciscan Richard Rohr helps us learn the dance of action and contemplation. Thank you, Sister Jackie, for sharing this resource.

Church at Home <https://bibleproject.com/church-at-home/>

Weekly email from the Bible Project focusing on a theme includes links to videos, scripture readings, and questions to ponder. Thank you, Kathleen Rhodes, for bringing this to our attention.

If you have a favorite devotional source that you would recommend, email me the name, link and target age group, and I'll add it to the list.
