

We all have a Soul

Poem Inspired by Zelda Schneurson Mishkovsky

We all have a Soul
given by God
and lost by parents

We all have a Spirit
given by our smile
and hidden by cloth

We all have a Life Force given by the mountains and blocked by our walls

We all have a Name
given by our destiny
ignored by neighbours

We all have a Soul
lost by our sins
given by our aspiration

We all have a Spirit
hidden by our enemies
and given by love

We all have a Life Force
blocked by our laziness given by our dedication

We all have a Name
ignored by change
and given by justice

We all have a Soul
defined by our life
and received by God
