DIRECTOR’S REPORT (Attached):

- September is Library Card Sign-Up month! All residents are encouraged to sign up for a library card to take advantage of the wide variety of materials available through the library.
• Johanna reported on previous month’s meetings, grant developments, statistical reports, and programming initiatives (see Calendar of Events, online), including:

• Haldane’s Middle School Battle of the Books team earned second place in the Mid-Hudson Library System Battle of the Books competition. The Board congratulated the team, their mentors, and everyone who participated in this year’s event.

• Digitization of the Julia Butterfield papers continues to scanning stage. Luanne Morse, who is heading the initiative is researching potential grant opportunities and partnerships with entities that possess the large-scale scanners and handling expertise these fragile historic documents require.

FACILITIES REPORT:

• Mason John Duggan has made good progress on his portion of the work on the ADA ramp: Dennis reviewing punch list items with Monteleone for completion.

• Monteleone Construction notified Johanna that they need to pause Phase III construction project until the beginning of October.

• ADA-compliant ramp renovation/rebuild awaits installation of cast-iron railing; a request was made in planning stage to preserve original railing for reuse: Dennis to consult with Monteleone on process for completion.

• A new Pollinator Garden has been planted in the rear of the library with the help of local volunteers.
