

West Point Foundry Preserve
An easy walk from Main Street in Cold Spring, the Old Forge Trail is a 1.9 mile loop and starts from the end of Metro-North Platform 1. You can also access the Foundry Preserve by walking down or parking at the end of Kemble Avenue. See ruins, a waterfall, and views of the marsh. Bike racks, picnic tables, and restrooms are available.

Little Stony Point
This easy loop starts at the Little Stony Point visitor center and takes you to the river's edge. The overlook path offers a panorama of the river and highlands. From Main Street, walk ¼ mile down Fair Street to the park office and visitor center, then take the bridge over the tracks. Parking, restrooms, and picnic tables are available.

Hudson Highlands State Park
Begin your Highlands hike across from the Little Stony Point visitor center. Maps are posted at the parking area and trailheads. Cornish Trail (blue) is an easy, 1.8 mile round-trip to the ruins of the Cornish Estate. Washburn (white) and Undercliff (yellow) Trails are more moderate and provide vistas from Bull Hill. To hike Breakneck Ridge — the most aggressive hike — be prepared for a scramble at the trailhead. Alternatively, take the back route: start from Cornish and connect to Brook then Undercliff, or take Washburn to Undercliff. Do not walk on Route 9D.

Constitution Marsh Audubon Center
This tidal marsh, trails, and boardwalk is a New York State Bird Conservation Area. Take a car share, the trolley, or park at Boscobel and hike the Woodland Trail. Alternatively, you can rent a kayak in Cold Spring and experience the marsh from the water. No parking on Warren Landing or Indian Brook Road. No dogs.

Clarence Fahnestock State Park
Six miles east on Route 301, Fahnestock offers hikes, swimming, camping, fishing, cross-country, and snowmobiling. Park at the Big Woods Trailhead to access Cabot Trail and Perkins Trail. Appalachian Trail mile 1,410 is at the south end of Canopus Lake on Route 301; parking is available. Nearby attractions include Stonecrop Gardens (seasonal) and the Glynwood Farm Stand.

Garrison and Manitou
The Redoubt Trails and Castle Rock Trail are moderate hikes accessible from Snake Hill Road and Route 9D, respectively. Anthony's Nose is a difficult hike that starts at the Bear Mountain Bridge. Running southeast for 7.8 miles, it ends at the Camp Smith Trailhead, north of Peekskill. From the Bear Mountain Bridge, connect to the Appalachian Trail at mile 1,392. Hike northeast for 6 miles to the Appalachian Market at Albany Post Road, and another 12 miles to Canopus Lake at Fahnestock Park.
