The Peninsula turns 30!

Earlier this month, we sent a newsletter celebrating 30 years of living in The Peninsula. Coming in the April edition of The Peninsula Navigator, writer Tara Marshall has an excellent article on several couples who've lived here since the beginning. Look for it in your mailbox soon!

A note from Christophe Hermine, General Manager of The Peninsula Club;

"Many people walk and jog on the Club's cart paths; others play with their dogs on our fairways and greens. We even had a father playing sand castles in a bunker with his daughter!"

We don't want anyone accidentally hit by a golf ball.

"We are a private Club and people should not be trespassing on our property."
