Remarkable Young Woman

Meet Madeleine (“Maddie”) Rizzo, a graduating senior this spring at Cannon high school who lives in The Peninsula.

Maddie is campaigning to raise $750,000 for The Leukemia and Lymphoma Society. For her efforts in funding research, Maddie has been nominated as the Student Visionary of the Year.

In 2017, Maddie and her sisters lost their mother, Meghan, to an aggressive form of leukemia. For the past 7 years, she has been dedicated to funding research for leukemia and lymphoma, especially research for children.

When asked why her goal is $750,000, Maddie answered, “It is $100,000 for each year my sisters and I have lived without our mother, and we want to do something extraordinary in her memory and for her legacy. She would be so proud that our efforts are supporting pediatric cancer patients.”

After graduation she plans to attend Bryn Mawr College in the fall.
