PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF Washington

Now may the Lord of peace himself give you peace at all times in all ways. The Lord be with all of you. – 2 Thessalonians 3:16

Dear friends,

No one loves goodbyes. Certainly not me. Long goodbyes can be particularly difficult. The past two months have been full of goodbyes. I apologize if the goodbyes seem drawn out. And, conversely, if I have not been able to say goodbye to you individually, please accept my apology and view this letter as my imperfect attempt at a farewell to all.

The apostle Paul knew how to say goodbye. At the end of each of his epistles, including his second letter to the church in Thessalonica above, Paul beautifully expressed his prayers for the congregation as he signed off, with the very realistic chances he would never see them again. So, forgive me for stealing from the best. Now may the Lord of peace himself give you peace at all times and in all ways. The Lord be with all of you.

This space is not adequate to express all of my gratitude for all you have done for Karen, Alex and me over these past ten years. Thank you for taking a chance on me, for trusting that God was at work through us, for supporting me when I was at my lowest, and for celebrating together everything God accomplished over the span of our relationship together.

I want to thank you for the wonderful luncheon last month. The food, as expected, was delicious! Your generosity with your financial gifts, gift cards and the beautiful stoles will not be forgotten. I will think of you all very fondly whenever and wherever I wear it and will give thanks to God for bringing us together.

Your next pastor will be stepping into a wonderful situation. You still have incredible potential to grow both spiritually and numerically. Whomever God calls to be your next pastor will be a very blessed individual!

Now, I should say one last word about our relationship going forward. Texts and emails to me are still okay. But, I must be careful in how, or if, I respond. As you are letting me go, I must also let you go as well.

In any church, there are always those members who have special bonds with the pastor, sometimes through friendship, sometimes because the pastor was there when a loved one died, or any number of reasons. One temptation churches have when a pastor leaves is to ask that pastor to come back for significant events – weddings, funerals, baptisms, etc. Our denomination has a very clear ethics policy by which everyone serving a church is expected to abide. Included in this is the understanding that I will not be coming back to perform weddings, funerals, baptisms, etc. If there are extenuating circumstances, an exception may be made, but even then, I would have to be expressly invited by the pastor or moderator of session.

We have this policy because when former pastors return for these significant events, they hinder the ability of the current pastor to effectively be the pastor of the congregation. All of which means, if you ask and I say no, don't take it personally. I still love you! I just can't marry you. I will continue to pray for this congregation for a bright and fruitful future! May God go with you all!

Blessings,
Pastor Pat

Pledge Sunday – 11/12

Please don't forget to bring your pledge cards with you to worship on Sunday, November 12th. Prayerfully consider to what level of generosity God is calling you. All pledges, like all gifts, are appreciated. If you cannot be in worship on the 12th, you can mail or drop off your pledge card to the church office. Or, you can fill one out online through our weekly "What's Up?" Newsletter.

Many, many thanks to all the church members that helped quickly turn things around and notify friends and members that the Downtown Chili Cook Off event had been cancelled and switched to a Chili Supper for us all on Friday, October 27! Thank you very much to all the Chili Cookers who each made a gallon of the special chili recipe and worked so hard for this Chili Cook Off then Chili SUPPER. Everything was changed so quickly to make it a fun Friday dinner in our Fellowship Hall and we had many people show up for it!

What a great and bountiful meal it all turned out to be, not just chili, but all the great fixings, sides and desserts, that made it a great evening of fellowship! Thank you!! Tom & Gretchen Farrell

The Church Office will be closed
Thursday Nov.
23rd for Thanksgiving.

Hanging the Greens

Christmas is almost here! It's time to decorate! Join us following worship on Sunday, November 26th to decorate the sanctuary and the church for Christmas and the Advent season. The more hands the merrier!

Alternative Gifts
INTERNATIONAL

Alternative Gifts International is an organization whose projects help us to share our material blessings with people here and around the world. In 2022-2023, our congregation gave to 17 Alternative Gifts International projects with a total of $670 donated. To see a powerpoint of our contributions, check out this link. <https://docs.google.com/presentation/d/1Khkk-LQmA9zGbRu7KKvs1Ic2QdLYoOVG/edit#slide=id.p24> We will also be sharing the powerpoint during Minute for Ministry in November. Thank you for your generosity!

This year we will have a more informal Market. Christmas time has many opportunities for giving, so the Mission Committee has decided to have the Market be done on a personal level. Contributions can be made anytime for the holidays and for any occasion throughout the year. It is easy to do online! Starting on November 19th, we will have catalogues and instructions available on how to participate in a virtual Market. And when you check out, you can name Presbyterian Church of Washington as your sponsoring church. AGI keeps track of donations and sends a local non-profit grant money. In the past, this grant has gone to Harvest Table. If you have any questions, contact Debbie Bandy and explore the Alternative Gifts Market online at <https://alternativegifts.org/giving/gifting>.

November 5 Scrip order date!

Sunday, November 5 is the next Scrip order date! Please plan on getting all orders into Becky Vogt or Kathy Froning by 12 noon after worship that day OR place your order securely online before then OR place your order securely into the church office Scrip Basket. All orders should have the PCW Scrip order sheet and your check for the amount of your gift card total, no order will be fulfilled turned to you the following Sunday. Don't TWO Scrip order dates THIS November 5 or December 3 date! Plan and your everyday church benefits so much from this program! Plus, this is the only year long-fundraiser the church has going on and our church immediately gets their part of the funds. Remember, these merchants already set aside funds for non-profit organization like us. We win by the merchants giving us a discount on their cards and the merchants win by having us use their cards in their stores. Gift cards are a GREAT and easy gift, and a wonderful learning experience for children to learn how to budget. There are over 700 merchants locally and nationally, check out much more information on the Scrip website www.RaiseRight.com Any questions? Don't hesitate to ask the PCW Scrip coordinators: Gretchen Farrell, Kathy Froning or Becky Vogt

NEXT Harvest Table Event Coming Up Soon on November 11th

Our next Harvest Table event (and last one for this 2023 calendar year!) is coming up on Saturday, November 11th, which happens to be Veteran's Day and a wonderful way to honor all Veterans, past and present, would be to volunteer your services at our Harvest Table event as we serve a warm meal to our wonderful friends and neighbors at St. Peter's UCC. The volunteer sign-up is already up and several people have put their names on the list but we need a total of 13 volunteers. Currently, we have nine volunteers and need four more, so please see if you can help! Please check your calendars to see if you can donate two or so hours (4:30pm – 6:30pm) of your Saturday afternoon by helping with this great venture. This Harvest Table group is highly organized and there are a number of volunteer opportunities like dishing and plating all the warm food for our guests, serving our guests, manning and pouring the drink table for all, serving the desserts from the dessert cart (yum!) and cleaning up all the dishes afterwards. Yes, we have a dishwashing machine! We clean everything up very fast with many hands, so we are usually done and ready to leave about 6:30pm. We always have so much fun at these events and we truly get back tenfold all the care we give to these wonderful dinner guests of ours! Any questions? Please see Gretchen Farrell.

Coat Drive Collection!

The cold weather is HERE and the Warner's Winter Warm-Up Coat Drive is ON! We really need your help for the many Franklin County neighbors of ours that are not prepared for this cold weather and do not have sufficient jackets or coats.

Please consider donating any gently used or brand new jackets or coats, many children's sizes are really in need, and help us fill up our box in the hallway! We join with St. Louis's 23rd Warner's Winter Warm-Up Coat Drive on Monday, October 23 – Sunday, November 5 in collecting as many coats as possible. (Gretchen will make a final collection pick-up on Sunday, November 12.) All items that are collected here in Franklin County STAY here in the county. So, please check those coat closets and drop off any donations here at our church. Don't forget, we also collect ALL year long with our own big collection box in our church coat closet. Any questions? Please feel free to ask Gretchen Farrell. THANK YOU!

A big thank you to all who participated in the farewell brunch for Pastor Pat and his family. It was a wonderful church family event with so much delicious food. Here's a yummy recipe that I make every Christmas morning when the kids are finding what Santa brought them.

Monkey Bread

In a bundt pan cover the bottom with pecans, 15 Rhoads frozen dinner rolls, sprinkle with 1 box of regular butterscotch pudding. Melt 1 stick of butter with 1/2 cup brown sugar—bring to boil—pour over rolls—cover with wax paper—let sit overnight to rise—bake 350 for 30 minutes—take from oven, wait two minutes then invert on to a plate. Don't forget to spray your pan with cooking spray.

I get rave reviews with this recipe—hope you do too.

Stay tuned for more recipes or fun tops from the Church Life Committee. Some of these recipes would be great for Fellowship Table. Wink Wink!

Gruber Celebration October 15

Thank you, thank you to all that contributed to our surprise gift collection for Pastor Pat and Karen Gruber and Alex for their celebration after worship on Sunday, October 15! If you did not see what we all got them, we purchased a big basket of Washington, Missouri foods and wine for the three of them to enjoy and remember our church and congregation by; several large Scrip gift cards for restaurants in the Weldon Spring, MO area, near their new home and church so when they move and haven't unpacked their kitchen yet, they can relax and enjoy a good meal; a wonderful large cash gift to have as fun money as they move (because we all know how much fun and how easy moving is and finding things once you do move all of your worldly possessions!); a flower bouquet for Karen; a palm cross made out of olive wood from Bethlehem; and, finally, we ordered two handmade pastor stoles for Pastor Pat to wear for many more years as he ministers to many. These two stoles that are pictured both represent Pathways in Life and are both very colorful yet different so he can wear them for many different liturgical events.

Thank you very much to everyone that helped with the brunch/luncheon that day: Beth Bonney, Barbara Mullins. Linda Booher, Sarah Spears, Kathy Rogers and everyone on Church Life! Many thanks to all that brought their delicious food dishes to share! What a wonderful time of fellowship and friendship it all was!

Giving Tree

We will once again be using the Giving Tree to collect Christmas gifts for 2 deserving family clients of the Pregnancy Assistance Center of Washington. The tree collection will begin on Sunday November 19th. If you wish to participate, please follow these steps:

- Pick an Ornament (or more)
- Register that gift(s) in the journal next to the tree.
- Purchase the gift(s) please do NOT wrap the gifts.
- Return the item with the ornament attached to it to the Giving Tree

The ornaments will be available until Sunday December 10th.

Please return your gifts by that day as the Pregnancy Assistance Center will be collecting them on December 11th.

Thank you for your participation. If you have any questions, please contact Christy Eckert 314-703-5984 or Kathy Rogers 636-388-1065

Pet Blessings

THANK YOU to everyone that helped, planned, organized, and attended our 8th Annual Pet Blessing Service on October 8th. We had our service outside in wonderful weather and as always what a great time! We had a fantastic turnout by both humans and animals as we blessed 20 pets: 17 dogs and 3 cats. Many thanks to Pastor

Pat, Ian McCracken, & Heather Miller along with the youth of the church that blessed the animals: Hazel & Cora Hedrick. A big thank you is due to Linda Booher & Vivian Marshall for collecting the pet food & monetary donations ($100) for the Franklin County Humane Society.
