PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF Washington

PRES-BITS NEWSLETTER

Dear Friends,

Back in January of this year, the Session approved a new church logo designed by Digital Congregations through our Outreach Committee. There have been some concerns brought forward about the new logo (what does this mean for our “old” logo?) since it was approved. I apologize that this letter wasn’t written earlier, but I do want to address some concerns and give a little history into the process that brought us to our new logo.

First, I would like to address the concern I have heard the most. What happens to our old logo? I want to assure you all that we are still very much a denomination of the PC(USA). We are not planning on leaving the denominational logo behind. It will remain on our carpet and on our signage and many other places we have grown accustomed to seeing it.

Second, let me explain the history behind the logo. Last year, Session formed an Online Outreach Task Force to formulate a strategy that would enhance our online presence and promote our congregation to the community through the digital world. We no longer wanted to be “Washington’s best kept secret.” One of the first things the task force realized was the need for our own congregation-specific logo. This would set us apart from the countless other PC(USA) congregations and make our “brand” more readily identifiable online.

Once the Outreach Committee was officially formed, one of our top priorities was to design a new logo. We voted to contract with Digital Congregations, an organization that I had/have been taking courses through for my continuing education, to send us some mock-ups. This endeavor was funded through the generosity of a member family.

Digital Congregations interviewed a handful of us extensively to get a feel for PCW. What sets us apart, what is our passion, what do we want the community to know about us? We all agreed that our logo should say something about who we are, not just what denomination to which we belong. After looking at various options, choosing fonts and colors, the Outreach Committee agreed that a heart shaped logo represented the love, warmth and hospitality that sets PCW apart from other congregations. The cross in the middle represents our Christ-Focused mission while the heart “embraces” that mission. Love and Mission. Two strong words that accurately describe PCW.

The Outreach Committee presented the new logo to the Session. There was much discussion on color schemes, but we are free to “play around” with the color as each project warrants. The Session eventually approved the Maroon and Gold “Heart of Christ” logo.

The Session’s and Outreach Committee’s goal is that the community (physical and online) comes to recognize and associate our logo with our congregation. This will take some time. Establishing a consistent “brand” always does. If they see our new logo on our sign, and then see it online, we pray that the new logo “rings bells” with potential visitors and supporters and encourages them to look into us by visiting our social media pages and our website.

I do acknowledge that the logo may not be “your cup of tea.” It may look too informal for you or remind you of an existing logo for another organization. But, please give it time. Change is always a little uncomfortable. The PC(USA) logo took a number of years back in the 80s to be readily accepted. In time, prayerfully, our “Heart of Christ” logo will feel comfortable and identifiable to all.

Blessings in Christ,
 Pastor Pat

Summer Sermon Series

Two years ago, Pastor Pat preached a sermon series on the Peanuts comic strip. The year before that, he preached on beloved Dr. Seuss books. Last summer...a summer sermon series slipped Pastor Pat's mind. But, this year, the tradition continues! Beginning Sunday, June 19 and continuing through all of July, Pastor Pat will be preaching a sermon series inspired by the book "The Gospel According to Disney" by Mark I. Pinsky. Each Sunday, we will examine a different Disney animated classic and the Christian themes that rise from it.

Also, in case you haven't seen the movie or if you would like to see it again, we will be showing that week's movie in our Zoom Room every Wednesday at 6:30pm. We will provide the popcorn and soda!

Here's a tentative schedule of the Disney films we will be showing:

- 6/15 Up (Sermon on 6/19)
- 6/22 The Little Mermaid (Sermon on 6/26)
- 6/29 Snow White (Sermon on 7/3)
- 7/6 Beauty and the Beast (Sermon on 7/10)
- 7/13 Frozen (Sermon on 7/17)
- 7/20 Peter Pan (Sermon on 7/24)
- 7/27 Wall-E (Sermon on 7/31)

Jaime's Back!

Jaime's maternity leave ends at the end of May. She will be back in the office on Wednesday June 1st. She has received permission from the Personnel Committee to bring baby Bennett into work with her this summer. So, when you stop by to welcome Jaime back, you can also get a glimpse of Baby Bennett! We do ask that you stay a safe distance from Bennett if you are sick. Wash your hands or use sanitizer if you have permission to hold him. And, keep in mind that pediatricians are now recommending that people refrain from kissing babies. You can visit this pediatric blog for more information: <https://www.pedseast.com/blog/posts/the-dangers-of-kissing-babies> We're so glad to have you back, Jaime!

10 Day Biblical Tour of Israel

In the May 4th and 7th Missourian there was an ad for a 10-day Biblical Tour of Israel with an Optional Egypt Extension sponsored by pastor Mark Bangert of the Immanuel Lutheran Church of Washington. The travel dates are November 7-16, 2022. The cost is $4,152 including air fare from St. Louis. The optional 4-day Egypt extension is $1,157.

Breakfast and dinner are included with first-class/superior first-class hotels, guided sightseeing, entrance fees and deluxe motor coaches. The Egypt extension goes to Cairo to see the Great Pyramids, Sphinx, Memphis, Step Pyramid, Museum of Antiquities, and more.

The itinerary is on the bulletin board outside the church office. Check it out to see all the places you get to visit. If you are interested in this life-changing event, see Pastor Pat for the registration form packet. Pastor Bangert will have an organizational meeting for those interested sometime in May or the early part of June.

Pastor Pat and Karen are seriously considering going. If you would like to accompany them, contact Pat as soon as possible!

Would you like to become a “Digital Ambassador?”

If you are active at all on Facebook and/or Instagram, the Outreach Committee would like to recruit you to become a “Digital Ambassador!” These ambassadors will help ensure Book Sale Wrap-up and Thank you!

WOO HOO!! Have you heard that we had our second highest sales at this year's Book Sale?! We had over $3743.18 in sales this year and we had one of the smallest inventories of book items overall. CRAZY GOOD! And, I know, it is all due to word of mouth and our social media advertising, all of which has amped up the crowds at our Book Sales. In the twelve years of doing it, these past two sales have been absolutely wonderful with large numbers of happy, book loving people attending, high sales, and lots of donation dollars to the Y Literacy Program, which had THE highest total of donations in our collection tub to date! We do SO many types of mission with the sale and give ALL of these sale dollars to our church's mission work, it is incredible!!

Thank you to all of the volunteers that helped with the April Book Sale as we put tables up, had the Scouts bring stored book boxes from the church shed to the FH, unloaded book boxes, expertly organized many donated books into our 30+ categories, sorted and straightened out the book categories, turned our church FH into a welcoming big Book Sale for our community even having a sofa and chair reading and relaxing and children coloring area, welcomed customers with friendly smiles, helped keep our tables and book area neat during busy sale times, helped hand out bags for our bag day, manned the check out table, bagged purchased books, expertly filling and boxing books in boxes after the sale to either store or donate to groups, to our Youth Group and YG Sponsors who helped immensely when it took just under an hour (in the sprinkling rain, I mahout add!) to load and stack organized book boxes back into the church shed and, finally cleaning up and restoring the FH afterwards. Whew! What fun!

Please mark your calendars for next year's Book Sale on April 28 and April 29, 2023! We will start taking book donations the day after Easter and start setting up a week later. Thank you all!

Gretchen Farrell and Kathy Froning, Book Sale Co-Chairs
