And they sang responsively, praising and giving thanks to the Lord, "For he is good, for his steadfast love endures forever toward Israel." And all the people responded with a great shout when they praised the Lord, because the foundation of the house of the Lord was laid. — Ezra 3:11

A WORD FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Friends,

My first Sunday back in the pulpit, albeit the pulpit of Webster Groves Presbyterian Church, I mentioned the benefit of keeping a Gratitude List. Those of us who struggle with depression, anxiety, shame, and/or trauma struggle focusing on the beauty of the outside world and our own inner worth. We look at the world through the prism of negativity. And, it can be difficult and time consuming to rewire our perception. A Gratitude List can be a big step in helping us look at the world and ourselves through a different prism: a prism of thanksgiving.

Thanksgiving dinners will likely be different for our families this year. And, that is a shame. However, we cannot afford to let that reality drag down our mindset. Instead, we need to focus on what is good and beautiful and brings us joy instead of what brings us frustration. If you feel yourself being consumed by negative emotions and thoughts, please consider the daily discipline of a Gratitude List.

Here is how I practice my List. Please know that you can adjust your discipline to fit your needs. I would only urge you to practice this discipline daily. I got a journal to use that I could dedicate to this activity. I began by making an initial List of ten things I was grateful for in the world or in my personal life. I tried to be as specific as I could: instead of just writing "My Wife," I wrote "Karen's Laugh." This frees me up to write everything about my wife for which I am grateful.

I kept my initial list to ten. I found I wanted to write more once I got going. But, I kept it ten to start. Then, early the next morning, I got up early enough to read my list slowly. I used it as a prayer: thanking God for each item specifically as I read out loud. I found it put a smile at my face and started my day with a positive perspective. That night, as I meditated and looked back over my day, I added three things to my Gratitude List. I found that this meditation helped calm me down and helped me fall asleep quicker. Then, the next morning, I reread my entire list prayerfully.

And, that has been my daily cycle each day since returning home. My Gratitude List is now multiple pages. If I don't have time in the morning to read the entire List, I at least read the most recent page or two. If I have more time, I read the entire list. It takes some time, but I feel it has been worth it. Now, when I go through my day, I have become conditioned to actually look for things for which I am grateful.

This is a big change for me, and it could be a big change for you as well this Thanksgiving season. I used to look at the world with a certain amount of fear and resentment. I used to look at myself with contempt. Now, though I don't feel anything like "fixed," I do feel I am looking at the world through God's eyes, who pronounced his creation "Good." And, I look at myself through the eyes of Christ, who sees me as worthy of forgiveness, grace and love.

It may work for you as well. And, for a divinely transformed perspective and an enhanced spiritual connection with our God, that is reason to give tremendous thanks.

Blessings in Christ, Pastor Pat

The holiday season is upon us and I can say, "Happy Holiday." I am actually composing this article on Monday, October 12th, Columbus Day, which is a holiday in our country. But today it is also appropriate to say "Happy Thanksgiving!" because today is Canada's Thanksgiving Day. I have a brother and his two adult children who live in Canada, I am thinking of them as I begin to plan for Thanksgiving in November here in the U.S. My family always has a reunion on Thanksgiving weekend. Three generations of my birth family travel from Canada, California, Colorado, Missouri, and elsewhere in Indiana to my niece's home in Indianapolis for our celebration. But not this year, because of the pandemic. I am sad because we won't have the opportunity to rejoice together; my brother Philip (the one in Canada) would have greeted my youngest grandson, Phillip - spelled with two l's, born last April - from Colorado. But no travel this year. No family gathering. It is disappointing for us. But nowhere near as bad for us as for those facing the holidays who this year have lost loved ones, jobs and livelihoods, property and possessions due to Covid 19, economic upheaval, and/or natural disasters in our country such as wildfires, drought, floods, hurricanes, or tornados. We all grieve the losses. How can any of us say "Happy Thanksgiving" this year? The answer: we give thanks to God, today and every day and season, for our continued blessings, As Christians we must ever and always assert and announce God's continuing presence with us and promises of love and care for us. God does not protect us from disasters but God is with us to lead us through them. For that, we can all give thanks. Jocelyn VanBuskirk

This is quite a different year for every aspect of our lives, especially big events, so we have drastically changed our 11th Annual Franklin County Warners' Warm-Up Coat Drive to take place on our church parking lot drive through circle on Saturday, November 7th from 8am-11am as we invite ANYONE from our county and community to drive through and drop off their donated coats in our organized boxes with the sizes already set and labeled. Contactless, seamless and quick!! We will let the coats sit for a few days in our Fellowship Hall then deliver to our local agencies for distribution, as usual. So, let's get to work cleaning out our closets to donate gently used coats and jackets to this very worthy cause! We also take brand new coats and jackets! Thank you for your generosity in this great time of need. - Gretchen Farrell

Per Capita

The Presbytery set the Per Capital allocation for 2020 at $32.00 per member.

Please designate "Per Capita" on the outside of your envelope.

ALTERNATIVE GIFT MARKET

This year our Alternative Gift Market will be conducted through direct mail because we really want to keep everyone as safe as possible; and yet, still offer an opportunity to purchase Christmas gifts for your family and friends that will benefit those who are suffering in our global world and here at home. Catalogs should be arriving in your mail by mid-November. Please look through them and use the form enclosed with your catalog to order your gifts and any greeting cards you might like. Alternative Gifts International (AGI) will mail your order directly to you and credit the Presbyterian Church of Washington's gift market. By gifting through AGI, together we can make a huge, positive difference in the lives of those who are suffering. If you have any questions or do not receive your catalog, please feel free to call Pam Schwarzen, 314-920-5451.

Hopefully, everyone has received their catalog through the mail for Alternative Gift Market. If you have not, please contact the church office or Pam Schwarzen (314-920-5451). There are so many wonderful projects to choose from this year: school supplies for children in Bolivia, shelter and groceries for homeless families in the U.S., and planting an orchard in the Congo just to name a few! Last year our church donated $1901.00 to Alternative Gifts International! These donations help to alleviate suffering in our world and here at home. So, please consider honoring the loved ones and friends on your Christmas list by gifting through Alternative Gifts International.

The Giving Tree has long been a tradition in our church at Christmas time. As with other annual events of our church, plans for the Giving Tree to provide Christmas items to the Pregnancy Assistance Center have been affected by the Covid-19 pandemic. Due to concern for exposure and with increasing cases in the county, the Mission and Outreach Committee are planning a different way to fulfill this mission. Our church has adopted a family from the Pregnancy Assistance Center for whom we will provide Christmas gifts.

As opposed to using ornaments as gift suggestions to be taken individually, we are asking for monetary donations. Some of the committee members have volunteered to purchase the items chosen by the family as possible gifts. In this way, those wanting to participate can avoid stores and crowds.

This very low-income family has 4 children, ranging in age from 14 to 2 years old. The three youngest children all have special needs. The two-year-old child has a severe heart defect. We will try to provide clothing and toy items for each child, as well as a gift item for the mother, who is single and also disabled, if possible.

Here is what your contribution could purchase for this special family:

A $5 contribution could buy: Socks and Books for the Children

A $15 contribution could buy: Shirts, Pajamas, Pants, a Football, a Doll

A $20 contribution could buy: Craft Supplies, Building Blocks, a Wallet, a Purse

A $30 contribution could buy: Legos, a Remote Control Car, Learning Toys and Clothes for Mother

A $45 contribution could buy: New Bed Sheets

Money can be donated online, brought to the office, or mailed to the church. Checks should be made to "Presbyterian Church of Washington". Please designate "Adopt a Family" on all donations. Deadline for collection is November 22, 2020. Thank you for your generosity.

Hopefully next year will bring a return to normal and resume the Giving Tree opportunity.

"Reel Faith" Movie Club

November's "Reel Faith" Movie Club will meet at 6pm via Zoom on Tuesday, November 24th. We will discuss the 2015 movie, "Spotlight." This movie won the Oscar for Best Picture and tells the true story of how the Boston Globe uncovered the massive scandal of child molestation and cover-up within the local Catholic Archdiocese, shaking the entire Catholic Church to its core. "Spotlight" is playing now on Netflix. Please watch the movie during the month of November and join us via Zoom.

If you need the Zoom link sent to you, please contact Pastor Pat.

Church Life

Our Church Life Committee has met regularly during the pandemic. Lots of great plans are flowing for church group activities when the time is right. We had hoped to host a fall church picnic and ice cream social jointly with the Property Committee. We look forward to enjoying this event in the future.

In recent weeks, Pastor Pat challenged our church family to think about things we are grateful for and start a gratitude list. At our recent meeting our Committee members spent some time sharing things we are grateful for. Family, friends, health, independence, our home, bed, food and shoes were mentioned. One member shared Covid isn't a good thing but it has certainly made us slow down and enjoy life. Someone shared God is the best artist as you enjoy the wind blowing and changing colors on the trees during a leisurely walk. Beautiful sunsets, watching ducks on a lake and a beautiful fountain make us grateful to God for our many blessings!

Our Committee is looking for members with hidden talents! If you have a hidden talent and feel like sharing, please contact Beth Bonney or Nancy Sebastian.

Stay tuned...this could be fun.

Pledge Sunday

Letters and pledge cards were recently mailed out in late October for our 2021 operating budget. "Rise Up, Return and Rebuild" is the theme of our drive this year, taken from the book of Ezra. 2020 has been challenging for all of us as we have adapted to "be the church" in different but safe ways this year. The year has also proved challenging to the church budget. With the cancellation of both the Book Sale and Rummage Sale, combined with the lack of facility rentals, the finances of your church have been negatively affected. We hope things improve in 2021, but as we know, it is far from guaranteed. Your church benefits from your generosity now more than ever. Please prayerfully consider your pledge for 2021, fill out your pledge card and either mail it to the church or return it to worship on Sunday, November 8th. If you do not plan to be in worship that Sunday, return them to Jaime in the office prior to the 8th. We are grateful for your generosity.

Children and Youth

I miss you all very much. That is the first thing I can think of as I sit down to update everyone on what is happening in Christian Education. I know from the time the children and youth have spent with me - most of us feel this way. In this time of separation we still strive for fellowship and find it maybe even more impactful and rewarding - even with it's inherent restrictions.

Sunday School - we are continuing with Sunday School this fall and currently meeting via Zoom, with an invitation to meet in person by request. The nursery is also open and utilizing masks and safe practices to welcome our pre-k friends on Sunday morning during our live services. The nursery is not currently open during Sunday School - however we do have a pre-k classroom and our teachers are working live and in person to accommodate anyone wishing to bring children of this age at 9am. For all other ages, please contact presbyandy@gmail.com if interested in in-person Sunday School - or go to https://unionrxi.zoom.us/j/91502732589 to attend the virtual Sunday School.

Music/Drama - 2 things this fall - we are working on some songs for virtual/in-person performances monthly if possible. We are also working on an original sketch comedy piece that we will be performing virtually and live in December. This event will be a fundraiser for our camp/senior scholarship for this year. Please log in to

https://unionrxi.zoom.us/j/95968637954?pwd=VINKZTQ1aE0rbjc1N3VtQ3N5aTduQT09

at 6pm on Wednesday evenings for more information on how you can be involved! The performance is currently scheduled for December 18th at 6pm. We will announce more information on how to log in and donate at a future date.
