PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF Washington

PRES-BITS NEWSLETTER

Dear Friends,

I want to take this opportunity to give overdue thanks to some amazing people who went above and beyond God's call when Jaime Brinkmann, our Financial Secretary/Administrative Assistant, was on maternity leave.

The Apostle Paul, in his epistles to young churches and young leaders, made special care to give written thanks in his letters. He thanked them in writing, but he didn't stop there. He gave thanks TO them, but also gave thanks FOR them. He also went to God and thanked God for them in his prayers. And, as is recorded in many epistles, he did so daily or ceaselessly.

I also give thanks for the following people in my prayers and I now wish to give thanks to them in writing. I give God thanks for...

Aneeta Brown – Aneeta did an amazing job with our weekly e-newsletter, adding photos and other new content. Please, please, please, if you have yet to sign up for our weekly e-newsletter, you are missing out. Sign up today by visiting our website.

Mauri Truesdell and Kathy Rogers – Mauri and Kathy worked diligently on our weekly worship bulletins. It wasn't always an easy task, but they did a great job and even got to break in our new paper folder!

Katie Farrell – Katie put together the weekly PowerPoint video presentation for worship. Katie's presentations were always very consistently pretty and professional. I rarely had to make any revisions to her presentations.

Karen Ladd, Mauri Truesdell, Gretchen Farrell, Christy Eckert, Linda Booher, Elda Seener and Nancy Sebastian – These wonderful women all volunteered to answer the phone, check mail, greet visitors, check voicemail and other administrative tasks in the office. They volunteered to make sure the office was open each day from 8am to 2:15pm. That's a pretty long day to volunteer and they were all fantastic!

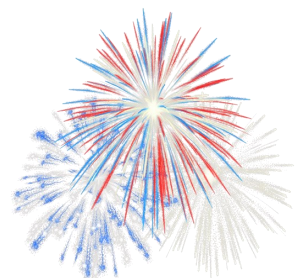

Becky Vogt – I'm naming Becky last on this "gratitude list" for a reason. It isn't because she did the least. Far from it. Becky volunteered her time to take care of all the finances for the church (deposits, payroll, paying bills, answering e-mails, etc.). This is multiple hours every week. We could not have gotten through Jaime's maternity leave without Becky. No one else could have done the great job that she did!

I pray that I didn't forget anyone. If I overlooked you in writing, please know that I am still very grateful. We got through Jaime's maternity leave very well. I am also grateful to have Jaime back in the office. But, the dedication of all the above volunteers ensured that all the ministries and mission of PCW continued without much of a hitch at all.

If you see any of the above incredible volunteers, express your gratitude to them. Then, in your next prayer time, give thanks to God FOR them!

Blessings to all!
Pastor Pat

Thank You!

Digital Ambassadors Wanted!

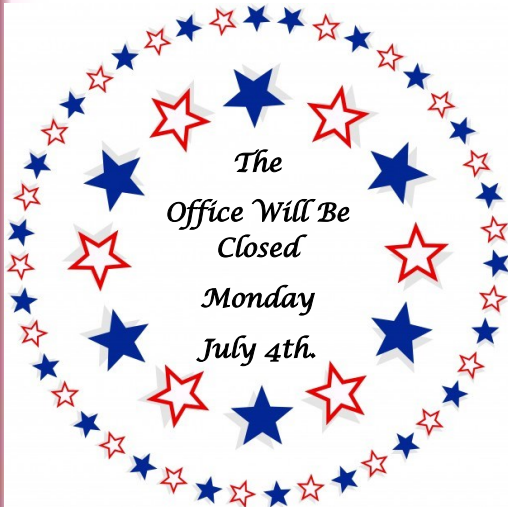

If you missed the June 26 Digital Ambassador's gathering, you can still be an invaluable help in PCW's outreach. If you are on any social media platform (especially Facebook and Instagram), you play an incredibly valuable role in our outreach goals.

A Digital Ambassador pledges to do the following:

- Follow/Like our social media pages
- Click "Like" or "Love" on as many PCW posts as you can.
- Comment on at least one PCW post per week.
- Share any PCW post that particularly speaks to you, especially big "event" posts (VBS, Rummage Sale, etc.).
- Send friend requests to other PCW friends/members.
- Interacts/comments/likes our livestream.

The more interaction we get on our posts, the more likely someone unfamiliar with our church will see our posts, which greatly raises our visibility.

The Outreach Committee will create the content, Digital Ambassadors (which could be YOU) will help us spread the word.

New Name Tags

Our new magnetic name tags are here! We have a lot of new and recent visitors and members who have a lot of new names to learn. Wearing your full color name tags will help everyone feel at home. Our new name tag carousel and the name tags themselves look wonderful! Each member/friend of the church 13 years old and above will receive a complementary name tag. Please remember to put them back on the carousel before you leave Sunday morning. If you are new to the church, or if there is a misprint on your tag, you may order one through the church office. If you lose your name tag, your first replacement is free. After that, we will need to charge $5 per name tag.
