Q7 What specific features make a playground accessible and inclusive?

Answered: 10 Skipped: 18

#	RESPONSES	DATE
1	Fence	11/9/2023 12:02 AM
2	Ramps its easier for younger kids to access play areas. Its also easier for those who may be physically impaired	11/8/2023 9:32 PM
3	Ramps. Flat level ground. Fun for all.	11/8/2023 8:14 PM
4	We need bathrooms that are clean filled with toilet paper and open to use.	11/8/2023 7:42 PM
5	Having the area closed in for safety. Having enough equipment to make every child have a place to play.	11/8/2023 10:40 AM
6	Open area	11/8/2023 10:12 AM
7	Ramp access within the play structure. Upper body activities Cozy spots Seating and shade Multigenerational play, some parks are only for older kids others are only for little kids so even if you live near a park depending on your child's age group you have to travel to a different one that is more age appropriate. Pour-in-place rubber is more accessible than rock and sand for some kids and/or accompanying adults.	11/8/2023 9:32 AM
8	Ramps	11/8/2023 9:25 AM
9	Ramps	11/8/2023 9:20 AM
10	Splash pad but would be better if it was a little bigger	11/8/2023 9:19 AM

1	Sensory boards would be nice for autistic children seeking sensory stemming	11/8/2023 9:32 PM
2	No comment	11/8/2023 8:03 PM
3	The skate park at Rockwell needs to be monitored for roudy teens swearing and smoking pot and bathrooms need to be available. People should not be allowed to blast their Spanish music or rap music with swears at a parks with kids.	11/8/2023 7:42 PM
4	The redoing of the parks are great. I would like to see the ground in playground with a material that helps avoid a child getting hurt if they fall.	11/8/2023 10:40 AM
5	I would like to see a playscape with ramps at Rockwell like they have at page park. My child has sensory issues and will not do stairs so most of the the time is spent watching other kids play	11/8/2023 9:25 AM
