

Rockwell Park

The playground was installed around 2007, with the exception of the standalone spiral slide. This park receives many visitors, and the playground is heavily used. While the park has recently received many upgrades, there is no need for new playground equipment at this time.

