*I used to think gratitude a heavy burden for one to carry.
Now I know that it is something that makes the heart lighter.*

The ungrateful person seems to me to be one who walks with feet and heart od lead.

But when one has learnt, however inadequately, what a lovely thing gratitude is,

*one's feet go lightly over sand and sea,
and one finds a strange joy revealed to one,*

the joy of counting up,

not what one posses, but what one owes.

*I hoard my debts now in the treasury of my heart,
and, piece by piece of gold,*

I range them in order at dawn and at evening.
