

Mentoring Program

Our mentoring program connects returning families with new families. There is a sign-up sheet at Parent orientation for new families to place their names, the age of their child and leave a phone number. Our Parent Volunteer Coordinator will connect new and returning families. The program was set up to help new families feel more welcome and have questions answered.