

Verizon Retailer Helping Drive Autism Awareness

Moorestown, NJ. May 3, 2021. Verizon Premium Retailer, R Wireless, is teaming up with the Central New York Autism Society (CNY ASA) to promote lifelong opportunities for people on the autism spectrum and their families, so they can be fully participating members of their communities.

During the months of May and June, R Wireless will be partnering with their customers and employees to help drive positive change in the communities they serve. Their Change For Change initiative encourages employees to ask customers to round up when making a purchase in their stores, giving their change to a local charity. R Wireless matches all donations made in their North Syracuse location dollar for dollar, with 100% of the proceeds going to an employee selected charity in their community. In this case, the Central New York Autism Society (CNY ASA).

Amit Singh (Area Manager, R Wireless) "I am excited that our employees decided to choose the Central New York Autism Society as our Change For Change partner, and look forward to supporting the great work they do in our community."

Jean Leiker (Central New York Autism Society) "R Wireless is a shining example of how our partnerships with local small businesses have enabled CNY ASA to increase awareness, acceptance, and positively impact our local autism community."

Elvin Berndt (Vice President, R Wireless) "Giving back to the communities we serve is foundational to our company. I could not be prouder of Amit and his team for their efforts in supporting the Central New York Autism Society and the amazing work they do helping families in the Autism community"
