

Investment Scams!

Have you ever heard an investment opportunity that sounded too good to be true?

Have you ever been invited to a free dinner seminar that claimed it would teach you about a special investment opportunity?

Wondering what you can do to recognize red flags and safely steer clear of investment fraud and scammers?

Come to the Fitchburg Senior Center for an in-person, interactive discussion with the friendly staff at the Wisconsin Division of Securities on February XX to find out how you can protect yourself and your hard-earned money from investment scammers.

The DFI staff will show you:

- How to check out financial professionals before you hand over any money
  - What red flags to look out for
- What to do if you are offered an investment opportunity

Join us on Wednesday, February 23 @ 10:30 a.m.
