

Tim Back, P.E.

Mr. Back has over 28 years of engineering experience, primarily with wastewater collection systems. He specializes in sewer Rehabilitation including specification writing, inspection and evaluation, training, smoke and dye testing, basement flooding investigations, SSO abatement, private property issues, product evaluation and selection, CIPP design, lateral connection design and product submittal review. He has a degree in Mechanical engineering from the University of Cincinnati and a degree in Environmental Engineering from Cincinnati State Technical College.

Mr. Back has industry experience including:

- Principal of Back Municipal Consulting (BMC) for 14 years.
- With Municipal Sewer Rehabilitation Contracting Firms for 6 years.
- With the Metropolitan Sewer District of Greater Cincinnati (MSDGC) for 8 years.
- Teaching NASSCO certified training courses for inspectors for Manhole Rehabilitation and Cured-In-Place Pipe for 6 years.
- 11 years of educating engineers and city officials on proper techniques for rehabilitating underground infrastructure.