

NOISE

- Noise meters placed in the corridor measured existing noise decibel levels between 50 and 67, which are levels comparable to a quiet urban daytime, nearby automobile traffic, or a household vacuum.
- Proposed post-construction noise levels were evaluated in accordance with guidelines from NDOT and FHWA.
- No significant noise impacts were identified.

