

Using Your Strengths to Achieve Success

The questions below will help you think through your CliftonStrengths as they apply to your work and upcoming priorities. The questions will help you identify specific ways to point your talents toward a current situation or goal at work and give you space to consider how you can use your Strengths to support that work.

1. Make a list of the top five most important tasks in your job. Find at least one of your top 10 themes to connect with those tasks in a meaningful way.

Five Most Important Tasks	CliftonStrengths Themes You Can Leverage
1.
1.
2.
3.
4.

2. What are two to three goals you have in your role in the next six months?

3. How can you use your talents to achieve those goals?

4. What is a challenge you currently face in your role?

5. How might you use your talents to tackle this challenge?

6. Which of the action items in your CliftonStrengths 34 report would be helpful for you to implement for success at work?

Adapted by Iowa State University Extension and Outreach from Gallup, Clifton Strengths Investing in Strengths Discussion Guide. This institution is an equal opportunity provider. For the full non-discrimination statement or accommodation inquiries, go to www.extension.iastate.edu/legal.